ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of COUNTY ASSESSOR subject to the will of the county Republican convention. J. A. VAN EATON.

Morrow county Populists are opposed to fusion

Before the end of 1896 the spindles and looms of Salem's double capacity woolen mills will be humming.

D. M. French has tendered his resigthe state board of regents of the agricultural college at Corvallis.

Some one sends us a long dissertation on how free trade works. We all know how it works. When it works In this country nobody else works.

Representative Hermann has se cured pensions for W. H. Cochran, the late war and residing in Oregon.

Men who rush into print as reformers and to condemn the legislature should see to it their own hands are clear and their coniciences clear of any designs on the public treasury.

O. J. Coffin, of Gervais, has assigned for the benefit of his creditors. The assets consist of miscellaneous personal property, and the indebtedness is $2005. The assignee is Jacob Bing-

There never was a time when the American people stood so sadly in need of enlightenment on tariff and currency questions as at present. But education does not seem to be what the politicians want to give, unless it helps them to office.

Our cheerful friend who is holding down a Republican's job on the Salem Statesman, has undertaken several other jobs that are too big for him. He may not succeed in killing off John H. Mitchell, Binger Hermann and silver all the same year.

F. A. Ford, of Woodburn, manager of a very excellent glee club at that place, writes a letter in good spirit about the political feeling in that end of the county. He says the McKinley club will accept defeat in good spirit if it comes to them, and we believe the same is true of the Lincoln club.

The "Salem hog" has lost part of its grip on the state through a rever-# d of the decision of Judge Hewitt, in the Eastern Oregon insane asylum case. The decision leaves the matter of location and maintainance of state i stitutions to the legislature. - Medf. r.l Mail.

Hon. Tilmon Ford, of Salem, is the strongest caudidate yet mentioned on the Republican ticket for the congr don't nomination in this district He will no doubt have the Marien. Remember THE JOURNAL is the county in L.gation, the largest in the district solidly at his back.-Roscburg Review
